

COME EXPLORE THE NEW FACE OF ARTS EDUCATION

Be a part of the new arts education, a comprehensive approach to teaching and learning that prepares students to create, interpret, analyze, and understand works of art.

National and state standards are calling on schools to integrate this innovative approach into their core curriculum. Explore the new arts education by participating in one of the Summer 1998 professional development programs offered by the Getty sponsored Regional Institutes.

These exciting, interactive programs, offered at sites across the country, highlight groundbreaking practices in comprehensive visual and performing arts education refined over ten years.

Whether you're a newcomer to comprehensive arts education or bring years of experience, there's a program for you. So register today...and be a part of the future of education.
